PART FIVE: JURISDICTION AND OTHER PROVISIONS

20. Pursuant to the CFA and DACCA, jurisdiction of this Court over the subject matter and over the Settling Defendant for purposes of entering into and enforcing this Consent Judgment is admitted. Jurisdiction is retained by this Court for such further orders and directions as may be necessary or appropriate for the construction and modification of the injunctive provisions herein, or execution of this Consent Judgment, including punishment for any violation of this Consent Judgment. Pursuant to the CFA and DACCA, venue is proper in this Court.

21. The Parties consent to the entry of this Consent Judgment for the purposes of settlement only and this Consent Judgment does not constitute any admission of liability or wrongdoing, either express or implied, by Settling Defendant or any other party.

22. The entry of this Consent Judgment has been consented to by Settling Defendant upon advice of counsel as his own free and voluntary act and with full knowledge and understanding of the nature of the proceedings and the obligations and duties imposed upon him by this Consent Judgment, and Settling Defendant consents to its entry without further notice, and avers that no offer, agreement or inducements of any nature whatsoever have been made to him by the Plaintiffs or Plaintiffs' employees to procure this Consent Judgment.

23. This Consent Judgment shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of New Jersey.

24. The Parties have negotiated, jointly drafted and fully reviewed the terms of this Consent Judgment and the rule that uncertainty or ambiguity is to be construed against the drafter shall not apply to the construction or interpretation of this Consent Judgment.

25. This Consent Judgment contains the entire agreement among the Parties. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Consent Judgment shall be modified only by a written instrument signed by or on behalf of the Plaintiffs and Settling Defendants.

26. Settling Defendant waives the right to argue, submit, propose, seek to establish or otherwise contend before any court or tribunal that Plaintiffs' claims against them or any of their bankruptcy estates, including claims or debt based on this Consent Judgment, are dischargeable debt or claims under the United States Bankruptcy Code (including under 11 U.S.C. § 523, including 11 U.S.C. § 523 (a)(7), (a)(19)) or any other federal or state law. This waiver is limited solely to Plaintiffs and does not constitute a waiver of any rights in bankruptcy that Settling Defendant may possess against third parties, even if those claims are based in whole or in part upon the claims brought by Plaintiffs in this litigation.

27. Settling Defendant waives the right to argue, submit, propose, seek to establish or otherwise contend before any court or tribunal that Plaintiffs are precluded, estopped or otherwise barred, by the entire controversy doctrine or in any way whatsoever, from asserting claims against him related to practices not alleged in the Complaint, regardless of whether those claims arose before or after the Effective Date. This waiver is limited solely to Plaintiffs and does not constitute a waiver of any defenses that Settling Defendant may possess against third parties, even if those claims are based in whole or in part upon the claims brought by Plaintiffs in this litigation.

28. In the event that the Court shall not enter this Consent Judgment, this proposed Consent Judgment shall be of no force and effect against the Attorney General of New Jersey, the Director, the Commissioner, or Settling Defendant.

29. Settling Defendant has, by his signature and the signature of his counsel hereto, waived any right to appeal, petition for certiorari, move to reargue or rehear or be heard in connection with entry of this Consent Judgment concerning past conduct addressed in this Consent Judgment.

30. In exchange for the consideration set forth herein, Plaintiffs agree to release Settling Defendant from civil claims or Consumer-related administrative claims, to the extent permitted by New Jersey law, which the Plaintiffs brought or could have brought prior to the Effective Date against Settling Defendant for violations of the CFA or DACCA that relate to debt adjustment, mortgage loan modification and/or credit repair services. The release language in this paragraph is not intended to apply to any private right of action brought by any individual or entity, or to any Federal authority, or to any other State authority for conduct not described in the Complaint, including the transaction of any other business by Settling Defendant, or to criminal liability, or to any other Federal or State authority not a party to this action for conduct described in the Complaint.

31. Notwithstanding any term of this Consent Judgment, the following do not comprise released claims: (a) private rights of action, provided however, that nothing herein shall prevent Settling Defendant from raising the defense of set-off against a Consumer who has received Restitution; (b) actions by the Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance to enforce any other banking or licensing laws of the State including, but not limited to, the DACCA, and corresponding regulations; (c) actions to enforce this Consent Judgment; (d) any claims against Settling Defendant by any other agency or subdivision of the State, including the Division of Criminal Justice and the New Jersey Office of Attorney Ethics; (e) claims, enforcement actions or prosecutions by any person or entity not a party to this Consent Judgment.

32. If any portion of this Consent Judgment is held invalid or unenforceable by operation of law, the remaining terms of this Consent Judgment shall not be affected.

33. This Consent Judgment, when fully executed and performed by Settling Defendant to a reasonable expectation of the Attorney General, will resolve all claims against Settling Defendant that were raised in the Complaint filed by the Attorney General, the Division, and the Commissioner in this action. However, nothing in this Consent Judgment is intended to, nor shall, limit the Attorney General's investigatory or compliance review powers otherwise provided by law.

34. Notwithstanding any provision of this Consent Judgment to the contrary, the Attorney General may, in her discretion, grant written extensions of time for Settling Defendant to comply with any provision of this Consent Judgment.

35. The signatories to this Consent Judgment warrant and represent that they have read and understand this Consent Judgment, that they are duly authorized to execute this Consent Judgment, and that they have the authority to take all appropriate action required to be taken pursuant to the Consent Judgment to effectuate its terms.

36. This Consent Judgment may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed a duplicate original.

37. This Consent Judgment is final and binding on the Parties, including all principals, agents, representatives, successors in interest, assigns, and legal representatives thereof. Each party has a duty to so inform any such successor in interest of the terms of this Consent Judgment. In no event shall assignment of any right, operate to relieve such party of its obligations set forth in this Consent Judgment.

38. All of the terms of this Consent Judgment are contractual and not merely recitals and none may be amended or modified except by a writing executed by all Parties hereto and approved by the Court.

39. In the event that any term, provision or paragraph of this Consent Judgment is ruled invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining terms, provisions and paragraphs hereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

40. The above captioned lawsuit shall be dismissed with prejudice as to Settling Defendant. However, the Court shall retain jurisdiction over the Parties and the matter and retain the power to order all applicable equitable remedies to ensure compliance with this Consent Judgment, including, but not limited to, contempt as provided in Paragraph 42.

41. This Consent Judgment supersedes and renders null and void any and all written or oral prior undertakings or agreements between the Parties regarding the subject matter hereof.

42. Failure to comply with any provision of this Consent Judgment shall be considered a violation of this Consent Judgment. Upon such a violation, Plaintiffs may take any and all steps available to enforce this Consent Judgment, including seeking an order of contempt.

43. Failure by any party to seek enforcement of this Consent Judgment pursuant to its terms with respect to any instance or provision shall not be construed as a waiver to such enforcement with regard to other instances or provisions.

44. Nothing in this Consent Judgment shall preclude a right of action by any person not a party to this Consent Judgment and nothing in this Consent Judgment shall preclude Settling Defendant from asserting any defense to any action brought by a person not a party to this Consent Judgment.

45. All communications and notices regarding this Consent Judgment shall be sent by first class mail and facsimile, if twenty-five (25) pages or less in length, to:
